

Chroma Saxophone Quartet is a California-based chamber ensemble dedicated to showcasing the vibrant colors and expressive possibilities of the classical saxophone. Composed of Juan Carlos Entrambasaguas, Gabe Read, Sophia Flores, and Nate Haley, Chroma brings engaging and imaginative performances to audiences throughout California and beyond. Through collaboration and performance, the quartet seeks to share the versatility and artistry of the classical saxophone with diverse communities.