

Gabe Read is a saxophonist and educator dedicated to both contemporary and standard repertoire. His performances span a diverse range of music, from Baroque transcriptions to newly commissioned works and world premieres. He is also passionate about expanding the role of the saxophone in orchestral settings, performing with ensembles including the Camellia Symphony Orchestra, Music in the Mountains Orchestra, Folsom Lake Symphony Orchestra, and Modesto Symphony Orchestra. Gabe holds degrees in Music Education and Saxophone Performance from California State University, Sacramento.
