

Nate Haley is a Northern California saxophonist with over two decades of performing experience. He has performed with ensembles including the Sierra Nevada Winds, Auburn Symphony, and Golden State Wind Orchestra, as well as chamber groups and theater productions throughout the West Coast. Nate studied saxophone at California State University, Sacramento, where he earned a B.S. in Business and Finance with a minor in Music.